

Host a Pink Out game and help end breast cancer as we know it, for everyone.

Join the American Cancer Society (ACS) on the court, field, rink, or diamond to defeat our biggest rival – breast cancer – by rallying your sports team for a Pink Out game.

During your team's next season, designate one of your games as a Pink Out game to help raise awareness and funds to improve the lives of people with breast cancer and their families. We are one team as we work to end cancer as we know it, for everyone.

Hosting an event is as easy as 1-2-3

1 Choose Your Sport & Pick a Game

Get active for a cause! Pick the sport your community loves – soccer, basketball, volleyball, or anything that gets kids moving! Once registered, we'll provide all the essentials to make your event a success.

2 Fundraise with Friends & Family:

Gather your team spirit! Recruit friends, family, and neighbors to participate and help raise funds for the American Cancer Society. It's easy – we will walk you step-by-step in getting your donation page up and running.

3 Host the Event & Have Fun!

Time to celebrate community and teamwork! Host your game and have fun as you bring awareness to the mission of the American Cancer Society to your community.

Join us today

There are many ways you can partner with our youth sports activations. Partnering with the American Cancer Society provides life-saving support for our vision to end cancer as we know it, for everyone.

Have questions or need more information? Please contact via phone at 1-800-227-2345 or email at YouthSports@cancer.org or visit cancer.org/youthsports.